The Symptoms of Sickness
Genesis 4:1-7

Three signs of spiritual sickness

- 1. _____ in _____ is
a symptom of spiritual sickness. (vv. 1-4)
- 2. _____ towards _____ is a symptom of spiritual sickness. (v. 5)
- 3. _____ God's _____ is
a symptom of spiritual sickness. (vv. 6-7).

Questions to Discuss and Consider

Read Genesis 4:1-7 at home.

- 1. Consider point one. Why do you think attendance, involvement, and offering are such an integral part of our worship experience? What does it communicate about God's heart for His people? Do you need to repent for apathetic worship?
- 2. Consider point two. Anger is not always a sin. God's Word reminds us to "be angry and not sin." Anger becomes sinful because of our rationale for it and the actions that follow it. Discuss how you can practically be angry and not sin. What process should you follow to ensure that your anger is righteous?
- 3. Consider point three. What can you do to be mindful of sin crouching at your door? How can you fight it? Consider writing Scripture passages on a notecard (or your notes app) to consult as needed. Consider praying Ephesians 6:10-20 often.
- 4. Remember to reflect often, repent as needed, be restored to God's favor, and rejoice in God's kindness.
